

HELIUM BALLOONS

What did you find most interesting or helpful? What are the implications for your practice?

The form consists of 18 empty shapes arranged in a grid-like pattern. The shapes are circles and ovals of varying sizes and orientations. The first row has three circles. The second row has three circles. The third row has three circles. The fourth row has three circles. The fifth row has three circles. The sixth row has three circles. The seventh row has three circles. The eighth row has three circles. The ninth row has three circles. The tenth row has three circles. The eleventh row has three circles. The twelfth row has three circles. The thirteenth row has three circles. The fourteenth row has three circles. The fifteenth row has three circles. The sixteenth row has three circles. The seventeenth row has three circles. The eighteenth row has three circles.